

Learn Songs In Different Languages by

Cecilia O. Malin was born and raised in Peru and lived in Europe some years ago. She is passionate about world cultures and currently works at the Connecticut Institute for Refugees and Immigrants. She will be teaching a song in French and Spanish.

Carlos "Jacare" Esteves, a native of Goiania, Brazil, has been playing capoeira for over 20 years and been an instructor for 10 years under Mestre Ze Com Fome of Capoeira Artes Das Gerais. He will be teaching a Brazilian Capoeira song and percussion. A dedicated father of two and a Stratford resident, Jacare is happy to participate in Make Music Day 2022!

Katherine A. Griffin from Trumbull is a teacher and theatre artist. She has worked at the American School for the Deaf and is pursuing an MFA in Theatre Arts. She will be teaching a song in American Sign Language.